Statement from the CEO of the Australian Crime Commission

The Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Crime Commission (ACC), Mr Alastair Milroy, today announced he will be completing his service as CEO on the expiration of his appointed term on 28 February 2009.

“I have advised the Minister for Home Affairs of my intentions and this will allow the government to commence the formal process of selecting a new CEO in an orderly and timely manner,” Mr Milroy said.

“I look forward to working with the staff of the ACC and partner agencies to continue to deliver the government’s and Board’s expectations for the remainder of my appointment term.”
