

Commonwealth Government Sites

<http://www.afp.gov.au>

<http://www.law.gov.au/aghome/aghome.htm>

<http://www.customs.gov.au>

New South Wales Government Drug Information Web-site

<http://www.druginfo.nsw.gov.au>

This is an easy access to information about drugs, programs and other initiatives being undertaken by the Government and community organisations.

National Drug and Alcohol Research Centre

<http://www.med.unsw.edu.au/ndarc/>

The National Drug and Alcohol Research Centre (NDARC) conducts research projects including the Illicit Drug Reporting System (IDRS).

<http://www.med.unsw.edu.au/ndarc/publications/TechnicalReportsindex.htm>

This link provides a list of NDARC publication abstracts.

Western Australia Cannabis Cautioning and Mandatory Education System

<http://www.wa.gov.au/drug/westaus/>

Evaluation of the pilot West Australian Cannabis Cautioning and Mandatory Education System.

Commonwealth Department of Health and Aged Care, National Illicit Drug Strategy

<http://www.health.gov.au/pubhlth/strateg/drugs/illicit/index.htm>

The 'Tough on Drugs' National Illicit Drug Strategy outlines the Government's priorities within the strategy.

National Drug Research Institute

http://www.curtin.edu.au/curtin/ce...h/illicit/cannabis_possession.html

Results of a research project conducted by the National Drug Research Institute were released in June 2000 giving recommendations for new cannabis laws for Victoria.

Alcohol and other Drugs Council of Australia

<http://www.adca.org.au/>

ADCA represents the interests of the Australian alcohol and drug field.

Australian Institute of Criminology

<http://www.aic.gov.au/publications/federation.html>

The Australian Institute of Criminology (AIC) is the national focus for the study of crime and criminal justice in Australia.

<http://www.aic.gov.au/publications/index.html>

This link provides access to AIC publications as well as ordering details.

National Drug Strategy

<http://www.nationaldrugstrategy.gov.au/index2.htm>

This site provides access to the National Drug Strategic Framework which outlines national policies and programs.

The Bureau for International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs

http://www.state.gov/www/global/narcotics_law/index.html

The Bureau for International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs provides advice to the U.S. Government regarding the development of policies and programs to combat international narcotics and crime.

http://www.state.gov/www/global/narcotics_law/1999_narc_report/index.html

The 1999 International Narcotics Control Strategy Report.

UN Office of Drug Control and Crime Prevention

<http://www.undcp.org/>

'Global Illicit Drug Trends' report which is an assessment of the drug problem, and presents supply and demand statistics and analysis on the evolution of the global illicit drug problem.

http://www.undcp.org/pdf/report_2000-09-21_1.pdf

International Narcotics Control Board

<http://www.incb.org/>

The role of the International Narcotics Control Board (INCB) is to promote government compliance with the provisions of the drug control treaties.

The Centre for Education and Information on Drugs and Alcohol

<http://www.cieda.net.au>

CEIDA is a part of NSW Health in Sydney and works towards increasing the number of effective strategies to reduce Alcohol and Other Drug related harm.

Australian Drug Foundation

<http://www.adf.org.au>

The Australian Drug Foundation is an independent non-profit organisation working to prevent and reduce alcohol and drug related problems in the Australian community.

National Institute on Drug Abuse

<http://www.nida.nih.gov>

The United States National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) supports scientific research into drug abuse and addiction.

<http://www.nida.nih.gov/ResearchReports/ResearchIndex.html>

This site provides a list of a number of NIDA illicit drug publications.

Australian Bureau of Criminal Intelligence
©ABCI Publications. All rights reserved.